madley in love with her but never had the guts to talk to her. One day prince Ernie went to his father for advice.
"father" he said. Can you help me? What do you need?, My dear son. Well,

I like this girl and I don't know if she like. do you know what I mean? Why of course I know. he sang

Whim. now do you understand me? "yes" said Prince Ernie.

father, I⁴ have to go. bye, said Prince Ernie. So he began to walk to the princess castle. it was a long walk and a perilous journey. he would be attacked by^{the} horrors of the^{village} Trole Matthew

He ⁵ was attacked by the two troles and Prince Dageran, his arch enemy.
Once he caught sight of this battle, he had to fight it so... He pulled out his sword and began to fight. The battle was tough, but he was tougher. He hit them and smacked them right in the bumper. Very soon the battle was over. What a very cool sight. 6 but his quest was not over. He had to get to prince's Matthews castle before sundown, or else ^{the} which will try to kill him to. So right before sundown Prince Ernie disguised himself as a stack of leaves. So when sundown came the witch could not see Prince Ernie, so she went away. When the witch went away, he cleverly snuck in the castle. And ^{he} had to sneak past the guard, and they could hear and ^{see} so good that they could hear and see a war going on in another state. So Prince Em-ie had to be as quiet as a mouse, and that's real quiet. So he got in and went to the prince's room and said my dear, do you know ¹⁰ what time it ^{is?} what would you be doing up this late? ^{I'm} thinking if you love me. Of course I love you, why do you think I risk my life to see you, he said.

Why didn't you do this before

She asked. I was afraid you wouldn't like me. Me to, she said. So intimate there love grew stronger and stronger, and soon they were married. And they lived happily ever after.
