The Frozen Cup
Man

by Jasmine

Jammime ; the Author
Hello, my name is Jammime Stokes, I am
eight years old.
I attend New Song Center
that is where I write my book. I looked in different books to give me an idea on how I was going to make my book. This is my first book.
I wrote my book about the Fireman Cop man because he lives in my neighborhood.

The frozen cup man lives
across the street from my house.

When he puts his sign on the door everyone knows the frozen cups are ready.

We run to ring the bell

The frozen cup man comes to the door,

"May I help you?" he says.

I always ask for my favorite flavor

"Egg custard please."

He leaves the door.

He returns with my frozen cup.

I give him 35¢.

The frozen cup man says
"Have a good day!"
