Portland Yacht Services

58 Fore Street
207-774-1067

Portland Yacht has been in this community since 1982. They can build you a boat, paint your boat, store your boat for the winter or put your boat into the water. They can help with environmental services by sending out cleanup crews for oil spills. They use good navigational and communication skills everyday.

Portland Pottery

118 Washington Avenue
207-772-4334

At Portland Pottery, you can make anything from clay or metal. They display lots of hand-made pots, dishes, vases, and jewelry. Classes are available for students and adults. The potters and jewelers are very skilled and experienced. They have been in this community for 16 years.

Wild Oats

87 Marginal Way
207-699-2626

Wild Oats has been in the community for 4 years. It is a different kind of store. It is an organic food store which means it sells healthy food without pesticides. Other departments have many food selections from other countries. Friendly people "follow their heart" at Wild Oats!

Flatbread Pizza

72 Commercial Street
207-772-8777

This business has been here for 7 years. They sell organic pizza with organic cheese. They are in the Old Port. They help the environment by not using pesticides, artificial hormones or additives. They learned to cook and be nice to customers.

Portland Fire Department

134 Congress Street
207-874-8400

This Munjoy Hill Fire Dept. has 24 fire-fighters ready to serve this community with experience and skill. They are responsible, helpful, co-operative, brave people with lifesaving training. Their job is to rescue people, put water on fires, and to get the smoke out of a building.

Portland Landmarks, Inc.

165 State Street
207-774-5561

The Portland Observatory was built in 1807 and rebuilt in 1964. There are people who teach about the observatory and other important places in Portland. On a clear day you can see Mt. Washington.

There are many stairs to climb. You need to know history and how to communicate with people.
