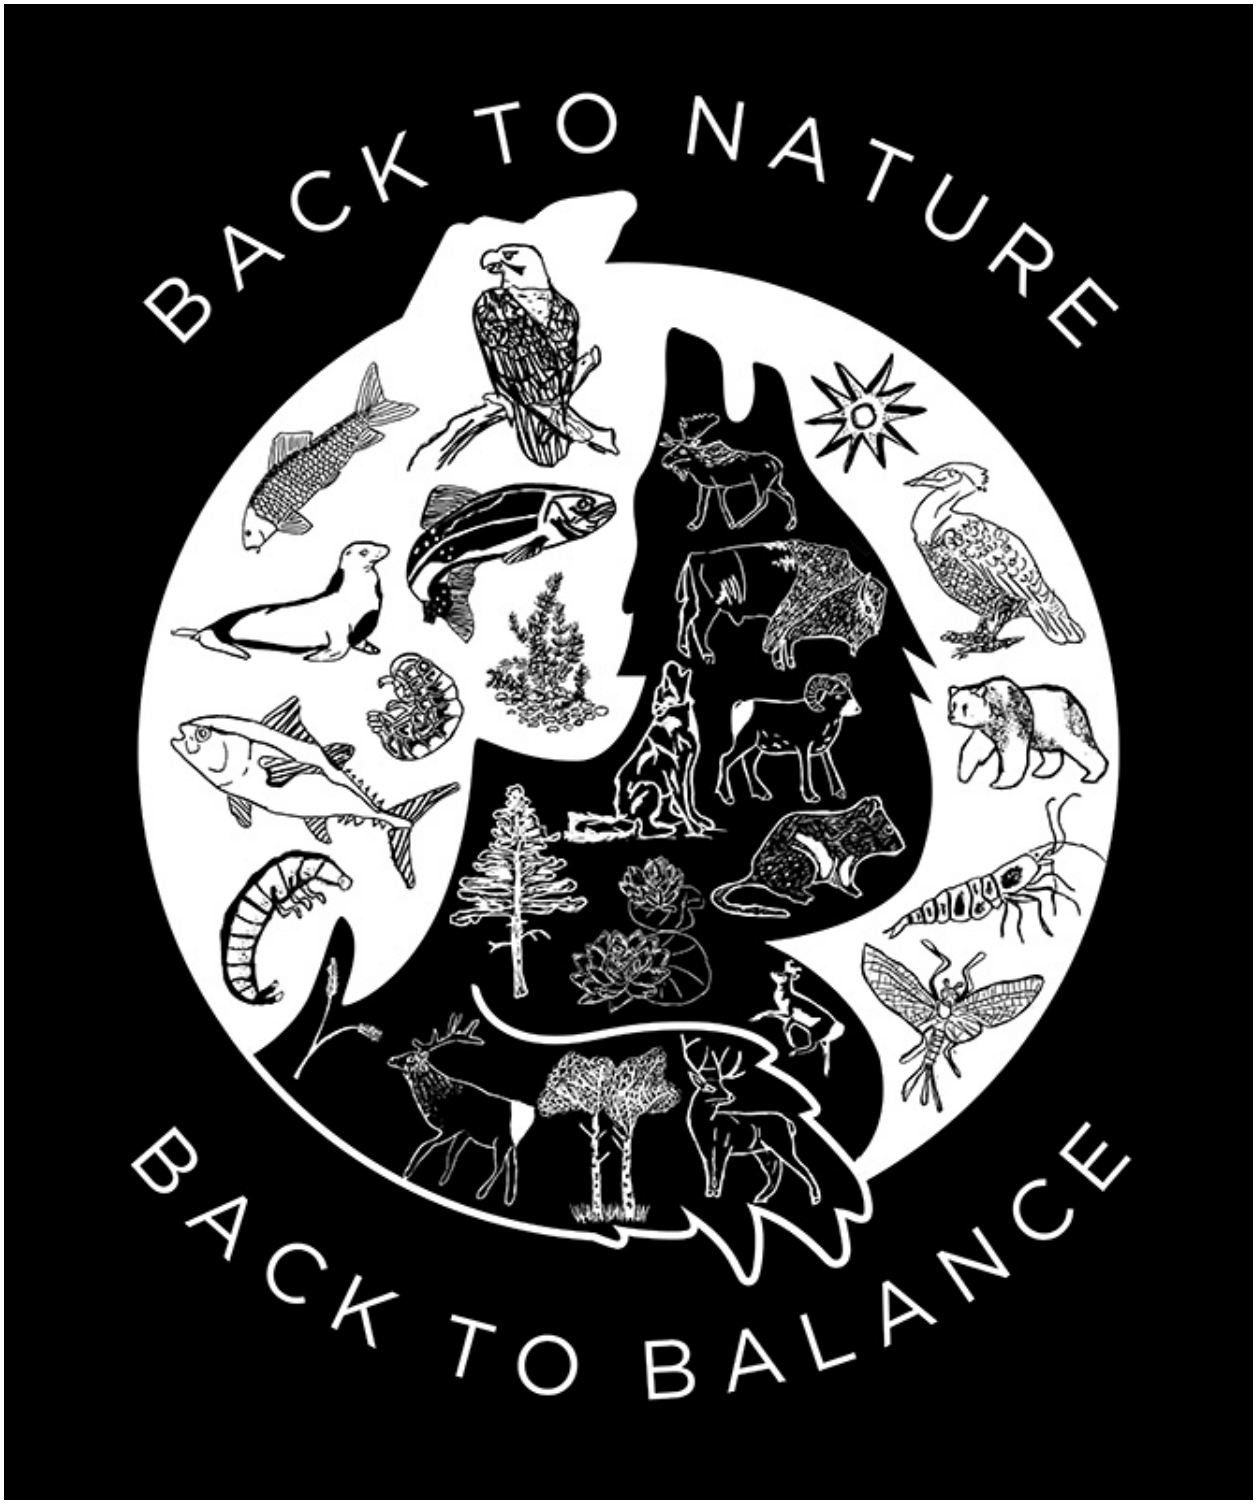
Selections from Call of the Wild



Scratch Art Criteria List

Your name: Max
Critiquer's Name: Jack

Learning Target: I can create a high-quality scratch art image for our T-shirt.

☑ Clearly scratched thick straight lines and smooth curves (not colored in)

Notes and Next Steps:
pretty good The humble by the head could be a little smoother

☑ Looks Realistic (you can tell what it is)

Notes and Next Steps:
yes I can tell it's a grizzly bear but connect the snout

☑ Clear black and white contrast

Notes and Next Steps:
me by use a medeny sizes scratcher

☐ Realistic shape

Notes and Next Steps:
yes very good shapes

☐ Shading and texture variation

Notes and Next Steps:
texcher looks pretty good

Scratch Art Criteria List

Your name: Kelton

Critiquer's Name: Micah

Learning Target: I can create a high-quality scratch art image for our T-shirt.

☐ Clearly scratched thick straight lines and smooth curves (not colored in)

Notes and Next Steps:

tail needs work colored in and non-strait lines

☐ Looks Realistic (you can tell what it is)

Notes and Next Steps:

Kind of looks like it's missing a ear well yes.

☐ Clear black and white contrast

Notes and Next Steps:

Has a bit to much white

☐ Realistic shape

Notes and Next Steps:

it's in great shape but it needs straight edges

☐ Shading and texture variation

Notes and Next Steps:

has to much shading. needs a bit less

Scratch Art Criteria List

Your name: Sueka
Critiquer's Name: Reeka

Learning Target: I can create a high-quality scratch art image for our T-shirt.

☐ Clearly scratched thick straight lines and smooth curves (not colored in)

Notes and Next Steps:
your eye could be less colord in.

☐ Looks Realistic (you can tell what it is)

Notes and Next Steps:
I think ya should mark your scales more accurate

☑ Clear black and white contrast

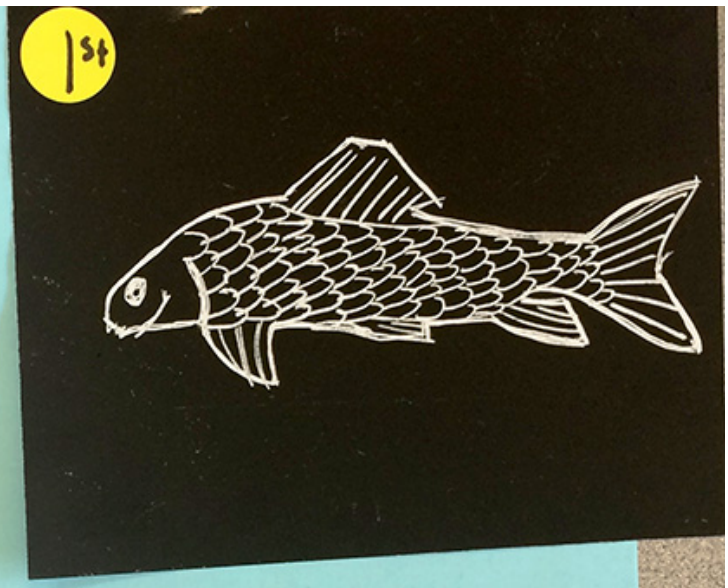
Notes and Next Steps:

☐ Realistic shape

Notes and Next Steps:
your fins need more shap

☑ Shading and texture variation

Notes and Next Steps:



BACK TO NATURE
BACK TO BALANCE