Learning Targets

Step Two

I can identify a member of my Community by choosing a person to draw a portrait of.

I can

draw a person using shapes.

I can

draw something new and challenging without giving up!
HOC: Perseverance

Choose a Member of our Community to Draw!

☐ Step Three

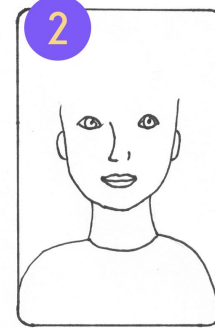

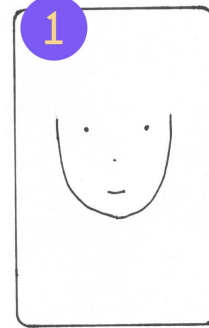

Draw your First Draft!

Step Four

1. Look carefully at the photograph of your chosen community member!
2. Using your #2 Pencil and Eraser, do your very best to draw a portrait of that person.
3. Use the drawing guide on the next slide if you need help

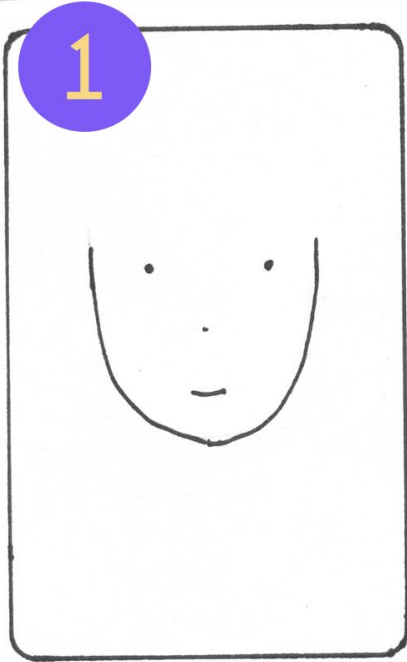

Draw your First Draft!

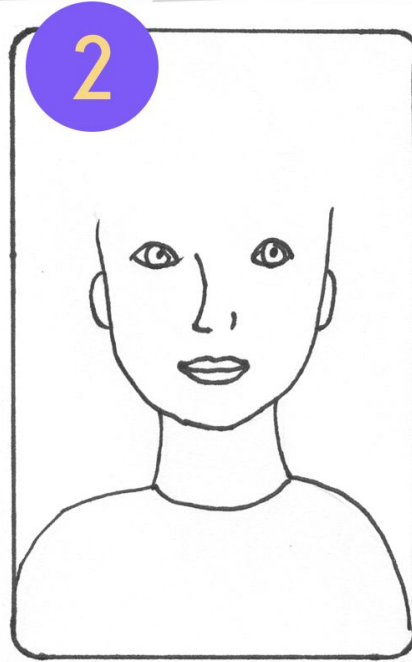

□ Step Four

Drawing Guide

Draw a dot above the middle of the paper near the side. Make another dot the same height but closer to the other side.

Make a dot for the eyes, nose and mouth. Add neck, shoulders and ears.

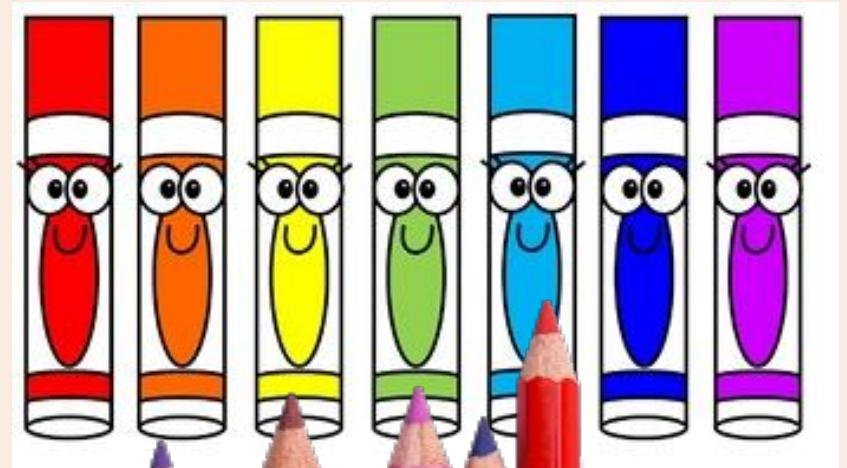

Fill in the details leaving the hair for last.

Color your First Draft!

❑ Step Five

Use any kind of color tools you have available!

High Quality Coloring Reference

We work really hard on our art projects and our coloring quality should reflect that!
Make sure to review the rubric for coloring expectations below!

Week Two Supplies

1. Skills Sheets (Whole School Project Packet; click to print what you need)
2. #2 Pencil & Eraser
3. Coloring Tools of your choice

Optional: White Board, Dry Erase Marker, & White Board Eraser

Suggested Schedule

Week Two

Step #1

Watch Slide Directional Video

Step #2

Review Learning Target

Step #3

Complete each of the 4 drawing practice skills

Step #4

Turn a scan in of each of your completed skill sheets to Google Classroom by 8 p.m. on Friday

Slide Directional Video

Step One

The screenshot displays a digital interface for a drawing lesson. At the top, the text "Skills Sheet #1" is written in a white, cursive font. Below this, there are two main panels. The left panel is titled "You Can Draw a Person!" and contains eight numbered steps (1-8) showing the progressive construction of a stick figure. Step 1 shows a circle for a head. Steps 2-4 show the addition of a triangular body, arms, and legs. Steps 5-8 show the addition of facial features and hair. To the left of this panel is a vertical toolbar with various drawing tools like a pencil, eraser, and color palette. The right panel is titled "Drawing Just Like It!" and shows a completed drawing of a girl with long hair, wearing a dress and shoes, enclosed within a red hand-drawn oval. Below the drawing, the text reads: "I practiced really hard and now I can draw A person!". At the bottom of the interface, a red instruction line says: "Look carefully at the drawing guide above. Follow the steps to draw a person!".

Week Two Learning Targets

☐ Step Two

I can

practice my drawing skills by using step by step drawing guides.

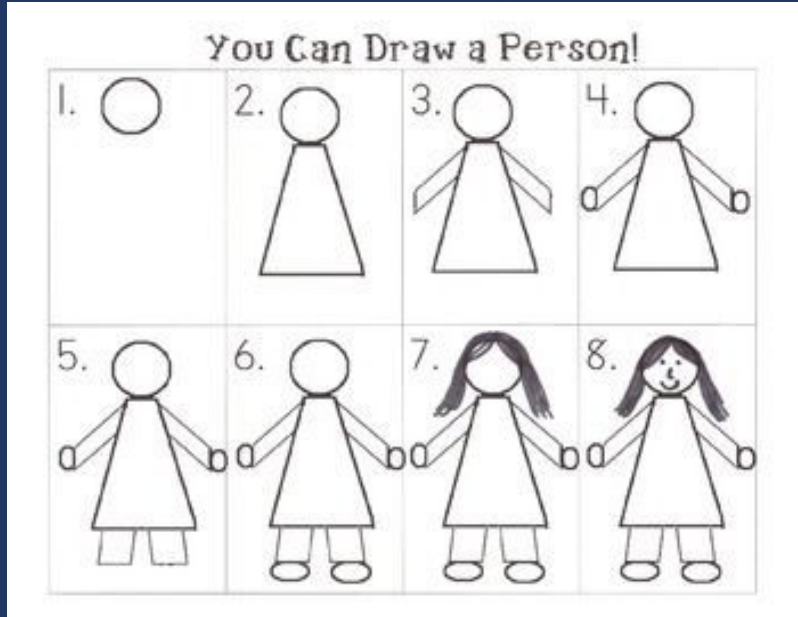

This will help me to draw these things on my own later.

I can

complete all 4 of my skill sheets as best I can.

Skills Sheet #1

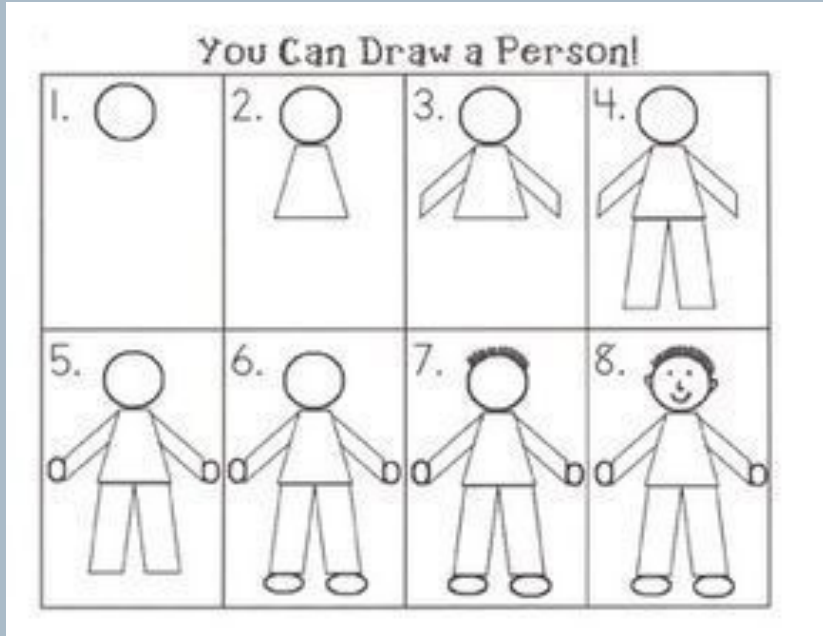

Step 3

Look carefully at the drawing guide above. Follow the steps to draw a person!

Skills Sheet #2

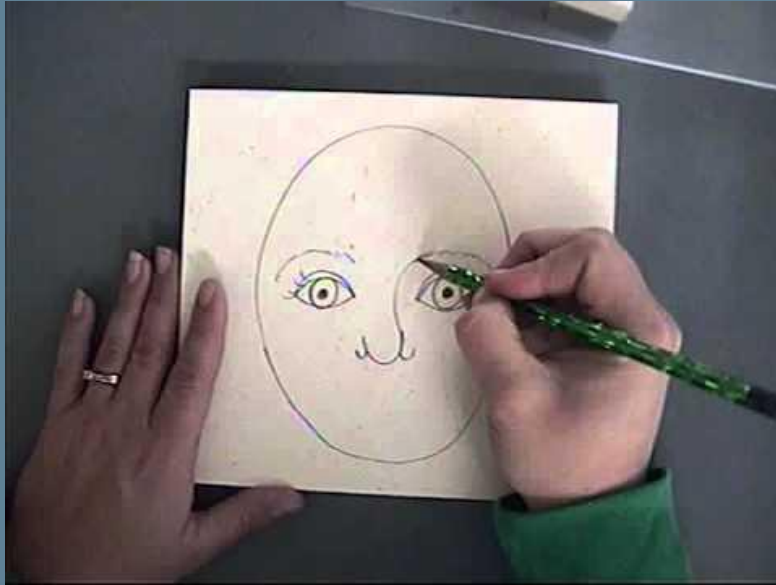

Step 3

Look carefully at the drawing guide above. Follow the steps to draw a person!

Skills Sheet #3

□ Step 3

Drawing Skill Sheet #3
Use the rectangle below to practice your drawing skills!

A completed line drawing of a woman's face. She has a friendly expression with a wide smile showing her teeth. She is wearing glasses and has her hair tied up in a ponytail. The drawing is simple and uses clean lines.

1 practiced really hard and now 1 can draw
A Portrait!

Watch the directional video and follow the steps to draw a portrait!

Skills Sheet #4: Monochromatic Self Portraits

Step 3

Drawing Skill Sheet #4
Use the rectangle below to practice your drawing skills!

A completed drawing of a woman's face, colored in shades of green and blue. The drawing is on a white sheet of paper, and the background is a solid green surface. The woman's hair is drawn with blue and green lines, and her face is filled with green. The drawing is set against a background of green polka dots.
