Mon oeuvre d'art

Nom: [REDACTED]
 Titre: "Clutter"

Je m'appelle [REDACTED]. Ma pièce d'art est appelée "Clutter" et elle est surréaliste. Dans ma pièce d'art, il y a un livre, un stylo, et un chat. En dessous des livres, il y a les tortues et les globes oculaires. Il y a aussi un masque et un phénix. Les couleurs dans ma pièce d'art sont marron, bleue, orange, rouge, jaune, et verte. Ma pièce d'art me représente parce que je suis un lecteur assidu et j'aime écrire. Ma pièce d'art me représente aussi parce que j'aime les animaux: le chat, les tortues et l'oiseau. De plus, ma pièce d'art me représente parce que ma famille a des problèmes oculaires et beaucoup d'entre eux sont aveugles. Ma pièce d'art me représente également parce que je viens de Portland et Portland est aussi appelée la ville du Phénix parce qu'elle a été brûlée tant de fois, c'est pourquoi j'ai inclus le phénix.

These are other great examples of pieces that incorporate student identity with elements of Dali's surrealism.

Product Descriptor for Project:

**Note: the French product descriptor is identical except for the language and artists represented.*

Nombre: _____

Un proyecto de arte: ¡Todos somos artistas!

I can write a basic description of a work of art using simple sentences in Spanish.

I can make connections between myself and a Spanish-speaking artist.

Over the past month, we've looked at a variety of paintings by different Spanish-speaking artists. Now it's your turn to be an artist! You are going to create a piece of art inspired by one of the Spanish-speaking artists we have seen. You can choose from one of the options below. You can draw, paint, create something 3D or digital... the only limit is your imagination!

Necesitas:

- A unique piece of art created by you
  - It must include all of the elements in the description
- A written description of your artwork (4-6 sentences) in Spanish
  - Give your artwork a name
  - Describe the elements of the artwork and the colors that you use
  - Describe how your work of art represents you

Opciones / Choices

Opción 1: Un autorretrato

Frida Kahlo created many self portraits that represented different parts of herself and her personality. Create your own self portrait inspired by Frida and include at least three symbols that represent something about you. These can be things that symbolize your identity, your personality, or your interests (animals, for example).

Opción 2: Un cuadro surrealista

Salvador Dalí drew on his vivid imagination to create surrealist paintings that portray dreamlike scenes with real and non-real elements. Create a surrealist piece that incorporates at least three things that are not "real" but that represent something about you. You can use your surrealist dream drawing from before as inspiration!

Opción 3: Una escena colorida

Roberto Mamani Mamani uses bright, vivid colors and Indigenous symbolism to show pride in his heritage. Create an art piece that uses at least three different colors to tell a story or something about you. Consider using vibrant colors and bold shapes as Mamani Mamani does!

Opción 4: Una idea propia

Another idea of your choice approved by Ms. Willard.
